

Art semester 1 2022 has begun with a flourish of paint.

The younger students have used paint to create skies, silhouettes, portraits and are moving into collage and multimedia work.

The senior students have practiced exercises in paint to understand the concepts of mixing paint to create tone, placing objects behind other objects and developing portraits inspired by contemporary Australian artists.

Here are some examples of Grade 3 portrait paintings, completed this week.

